

WORK OF THE WEEK AT THE CAPITAL

THE BILLS ARE ALL IN NOW AS TIME IS UP.

What They Provide For Is Yet To Be Learned, as the Reporters Can Only Get the Titles in the Great Rush—The Lobby and Pass Measures.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 18.—[Special]—All the bills except those which may be introduced by joint resolutions or come from the committees have now been offered in the legislature, and the total is 377 less than the number introduced two years ago, the number put in this session being 843 of which 258 came in Friday, 112 in the senate and 146 in the assembly. What they provide for is still to be ascertained as the titles tell little of the meaning of the bills and the reporters have no chance to get anything more than the titles in the hurry of the session.

The Anti-Lobby Measure. The expected anti-lobby bill was one of the measures which came in the last day. Instead of prohibiting lobbyists it authorizes their presence under regulations. Two classes are provided for. One is to be known as legislative attorneys, who are supposed to appear before the committees to urge or oppose measures in which they are hired to be interested. The other class is named legislative agents, embracing those now known under the general term of lobbyists. All of both classes who are employed by corporations are required to register. Just what difference this will make in the "third-house" it is difficult for the uninitiated to determine.

Reduce Railway Rates. With the exit of the pass system comes a ray of hope in a bill introduced by Senator McGillivray on the last day for new business. It compels railway companies to furnish transportation free to public officials, including court judges, upon the presentation of their certificate of election, signed by the secretary of state. Mr. McGillivray says that this differs materially from the pass system, being in the nature of an additional tax upon the railway companies.

Merry Passing of Pass. The passing of the pass in the senate was the occasion for one of the brightest things that has sprung on the present session. The bill was going to a vote without a word of discussion when Senator Woodworth, who is a doctor from Ellsworth, asked if remarks were in order, and being told that they would be heard delivered a funeral oration upon the pass, half humorous and half serious. After stating that he had hoped some one else might have come forward and broken the funeral stillness of this solemn and historical occasion, he said: "The grave of our old friend, The Pass, has been dug, senators, and we are to be the pall bearers and my old friend, Senator Withee, here, is the poetic, gray-bearded sexton, old and grim; and over in the chapel on the other side, the officiating clergyman, yea, the grand high priest of reform is waiting for the funeral cortege."

Had No Effect. The pass may have been a child of sin, but I most earnestly deny it alleged demoralizing effects upon this body of gentlemen before me. In my experience of three sessions I have not yet known of an instance where any of my colleagues have been suspected of having had their judgment warped by reason of the pass." In conclusion he said: "And, senators, when we shall be the pass is now, cold, dead, and dumb to all the world contains, may the president of the celestial railway send to each of us a pass, with no hard conditions endorsed upon its back; as pass that the holier-than-thou will still envy, a pass that will carry us free of charge through the dark night into the illuminated city at the terminus of the line from which return transportation is never issued, and I trust, senators, never desired."

Next Week's Program. Next week the members of the legislature will take a trip to Green Bay to inspect the new state reformatory for the completion of which a bill carrying a good sized appropriation is pending. The invitation comes from the state board of control and is seconded by the business men of Green Bay. A special train will be provided to carry the senators, leaving here Tuesday evening after the session and returning Thursday morning. The last legislative excursion was the visit to the Illinois legislature at Springfield four years ago, and notwithstanding the change to a warmer climate their reception there was so frosty as to discourage similar experiences since. Assemblyman McGrath, who is understood a ringleader of the present excursion promises that the Green Bay reception will be different.

Anti-Free Pass Bill Passes. Madison, Wis., Feb. 18.—The bill prohibiting free passes for all public officers and members of the legislature passed the senate Friday with but one dissenting vote, that of Senator Stebbins of Algona. He was nominated before the station adopted the anti-pass plank of the party platform, and says that he is not bound by any such plank, as the convention which nominated him made no declaration on the subject. The two democratic senators, Weeds and Jacobs, voted for the bill.

WILD GEESSE ARE NUMEROUS

Several Flocks Are Seen Daily on the Prairie Lands. Wild geese are plentiful on the prairie lands south of this city. Because of the open winter and the absence of snow the geese have not changed their feeding grounds. Farmers who reside in the town of La Prairie report that the geese are to be seen in the fields feeding in flocks of two or three dozen and that they seem to be little concerned by the sight of passing vehicles. In most cases they favor corn fields as feeding ground.

Alma, Wis., Feb. 18.—A serious accident occurred while liveryman Charles Reilly, of Wabash, was driving three traveling men to this village. State May Tax Ice Combine. Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 18.—If a bill introduced in the legislature by Senator Harris of Walworth county passes, the ice trust, the Knickerbocker Ice company, and the Chicago packers will have to pay the state of Wisconsin about $225 a year more than they are paying now. The bill imposes a tax of 15 cents a ton on all ice cut from Wisconsin lakes and shipped outside the state. It was drawn by A. L. Sanborn, the man who confines the Wisconsin laws, and is pronounced constitutional by lawyers here. Sentiment generally is in favor of it among the legislators.

Local Dealers' Meeting. Watertown, Wis., Feb. 18.—Retail lumber dealers from the counties of Dodge, Jefferson, Rock and Waushara held a meeting last night and organized the Watertown Local Association of Lumber Dealers. The object will be to deal with lumber yard insurance. About twenty-five representatives were present. The following officers were elected: President, E. W. Wilcox, Fort Atkinson; vice president, A. E. Needham, Ionia; secretary-treasurer, Fred Schmutzler, Watertown.

Eight Cases of Smallpox. Appleton, Wis., Feb. 18.—Two more cases of smallpox developed yesterday, both being in the families where the disease was first contracted. JURY ACQUITTED JAY BREWER. Case Tried Twice and Has Cost the County Considerable.

The case of the State of Wisconsin vs. Jay Brewer came to an end yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock when the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. The defendant, who is a resident of Orfordville, was charged with the larceny of $78 from the person, of Patrick Noon. The case was tried twice. Judge Tifled denied the motion yesterday of Attorney C. E. Pierce in the case of Frank Opitz against J. H. Bolte, to set aside the verdict of the jury which was in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $52, and grant a new trial on the ground of error in the trial of the case.

NOW SAY THE BILL WILL PASS SENATE

FAVORABLE ACTION ON RIVER AND HARBOR MEASURE.

Will Carry the Amendment Concerning the Nicaragua Canal with It, But the Action of the House Is Uncertain—Other News of the National Capital.

Washington, Feb. 18.—[Special]—After a careful canvass of the situation competent judges say that there is every indication that the river and harbor bill, with the Nicaragua Canal amendment, will certainly pass the senate. The chances in the house, however, are held to be uncertain.

Washington, Feb. 18.—[Special]—The senate resumed consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill today.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Advocates of the Nicaragua canal in both houses of congress purpose to fight to the last moment of the session to obtain a bill providing for the construction of the canal, and if they are not successful they may go so far as to force an extra session by deliberately preventing the passage of one or more of the great appropriation bills.

Mr. Hepburn having failed in his fight to have the canal amendment put on the sundry civil bill in the house, the matter was taken up in the senate Friday, and by a vote of 7 to 4 the senate committee on commerce agreed to report the amendment as a part of the river and harbor appropriation bill. It is claimed that there will be as many votes in the senate for the amendment as there were for the passage of the Morgan bill.

If this is true, the house, which is prevented by its own rules and the attitude of the speaker from considering the canal bill as a separate measure, will be forced to consider it as an amendment to the general appropriation bill.

Though a member of the senate committee said that the canal amendment would be passed as a rider to the river and harbor bill, many senators and representatives who are interested in items in the river and harbor bill for their states and districts are afraid that the entire measure may be defeated. They fear the president would not call an extra session for either the canal or the rivers and harbors, and that they might get no river and harbor appropriations this year.

For this reason a strong effort will be made by the leading members of the river and harbor committee in the house to get the canal amendment off the bill. It will be fought at every stage by men who would favor it as a separate measure, and a strong effort will yet be made to have the house take it up as a separate measure and thus obviate the necessity of keeping it on the river and harbor bill.

Eight-Hour Bill Is Reported. Washington, Feb. 20.—Senator Turpie from the committee on education and labor Friday reported the eight-hour bill without recommendation. An amendment is suggested providing that the act "shall not apply to contracts for the purchase of the ordinary supplies of the government nor to contracts for such materials."

KEEP THE REGULARS ON THE CUBAN SOIL

VOLUNTEERS, HOWEVER, WILL SOON RETURN HOME.

The Original Plan Is Abandoned by the War Department at the Urgent Request of General Brooke, Who Wants Good Force Until the Cubans Disband.

Washington, Feb. 18.—[Special]—The American regular soldier will stay in Cuba for some time to come. The proposed plan to withdraw the troops has been abandoned upon the urgent request of General Brooke, who advises keeping a strong force on the island until after the Cuban army is disbanded.

The volunteers, however, will not have much more time to serve, as it is now announced that all volunteers will be withdrawn immediately after the Spanish Cortes ratifies the peace treaty.

Washington, Feb. 18.—In the house Friday Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriations, introduced a bill to make the appropriation of $20,000,000 needed to carry out the treaty of peace with Spain which was ruled out of the sundry civil appropriation bill Thursday.

Mr. Maxwell introduced a bill empowering the president to negotiate a treaty with Nicaragua and Costa Rica for the purpose of constructing a canal across the isthmus of Nicaragua, and $500,000 is placed at his disposal for the purpose of negotiating the treaty.

The regular order being demanded, a vote was taken by yeas and nays upon the question of laying on the table the appeal of Mr. Hepburn from the decision of Speaker Reed that his motion to recommit the sundry civil appropriation bill, with instructions to add the Nicaragua canal bill, was not in order. The appeal was laid on the table—yes 155, nays 96.

The sundry civil bill was then passed without division.

LOUBET IS CHOSEN AS PRESIDENT

Elected To Succeed M. Faure This Morning.

CHOICE WAS MADE ON AN INFORMAL COUNT.

But It Shows That He Is the Man Favored, and the Real Election Will Be But a Formality—Had Eighty-Four Votes To Spare—Reporters Threatened with Expulsion From Paris For Referring to Dreyfus Case and Its Effect on Election.

Paris, Feb. 18.—[Special]—Emile Loubet was today elected as president of France, in an informal count, by a majority of eighty-four votes. This action was expected as M. Loubet had previously been nominated by the leftist senators, and M. Meilne and M. Dupuy had refused to be candidates against him. Loubet was president of the senate, and is a nobleman.

The Formal Action. Paris, Feb. 18.—[Special]—When the national assembly reconvened this afternoon Loubet was formally declared elected president. After taking the formal vote the national assembly took a recess to await the formal announcement of the count. M. Moline opposed Loubet for president in spite of his declaration that he would not do so, but the count only gave him 250 votes against 480 for Loubet.

After the formal announcement of the vote, Loubet was informed of his election in the private room at the Versailles palace. In a few words appreciative of the honor, he thanked the committee sent to notify him of his election. Immediately afterward President Loubet entered a carriage, and escorted by the cavalry, was driven to the Elysee, the official residence of the president. The visit to the Elysee was a merely formal one, however, as Loubet will not reside there until after the funeral of M. Faure. The whole eleven miles' drive to the Elysee was one continuous ovation. Riot in the Assembly.

Paris, Feb. 18.—[Special]—The choosing of the president was not absolutely devoid of excitement. When Loubet opened the proceedings of the national assembly, he was greeted with applause. He then began the reading of the provision of the constitution for the presidential election, and the balloting immediately took place without debate.

But while the voting was in progress, Paul Deroulade, an anti-Dreyfus leader, arose and denounced Loubet as a Panamist. The election then became the most riotous in the history of the third republic. Cries of "Down with Jews," "down with the Jesuits," and "Vive La France" came from galleries in thunder tones.

Revolver Is Drawn. Deroulade drew a revolver, and threatened to shoot when an attempt was made to eject him.

A furious anti-revisionist campaign was made last night, and this morning before the election was held. A big crowd of Loubet's opponents gathered in front of the republican club shouting, "Down with Loubet" and cheering for Meilne. The crowd was dispersed.

To Expel the Reporters. Paris, Feb. 18.—[Special]—This has been a day of excitement. The newspaper correspondents at the capitol have been threatened with expulsion for sending out telegrams to the effect that the Dreyfus crisis was effecting the election of President Faure's successor.

Paris, Feb. 18.—The premier, M. Dupuy, has fixed the meeting of the national assembly, or congress, in which the senators and deputies unite in voting for a president of France, for 1 o'clock this afternoon at Versailles. At a meeting of the leftist senators M. Loubet, the president of the senate, and former premier, was unanimously nominated for the presidency, in succession to the late President Faure. The senators consider M. Loubet's election assured.

In the senate M. Loubet announced the death of President Faure. In so doing he said all the members of the senate joined in the mourning for suddenly stricken France. He eulogized the deceased. The senate then adjourned until Tuesday.

It was a significant incident that as M. Loubet, who has accepted the nomination for the president, left the chair he was greeted with unanimous applause and the senators cried "Vive la republique!"

M. Faure's death has calmed rather than excited political parties. The situation is grave, and the people everywhere feel this.

SHIRT WAIST AND HABIT SKIRT FROM HARPER'S BAZAR

The shirt-waist design published with habit skirt in this issue and taken from Harper's Bazar is modeled upon the latest design for the coming season. It has a pointed back yoke, from the point of which six narrow box-pleats extend to the waist line. The front of the waist is without yoke, but has a group of outward-turning tucks on each side of the centre box-pleat. The sleeves are easy-fitting about the upper arm, and fit almost smoothly into the cuffs, without gathers. The pattern consists of six pieces, carefully marked and numbered. In using The Bazar patterns our readers are cautioned to observe the following rules: Always begin to sew bodice seams from the waist-line up, and if the garment extend below the waist, begin again at the waist line and sew downward. In applying collars or collar-bands always begin at the centre of the back, and stitch first one side and then the other. Full cuff, collar and belt pieces accompany all patterns which call for such portions.

To make this shirt-waist of silk it will require 4½ yards 20 inches wide; or to make of gingham or organdie, 30 inches wide, it will require 3½ yards.

The habit skirt will be found an excellent model where a front gored skirt is desired. As the name implies, this garment has all the elegance of fit required for a riding habit. There is a center seam in the back, but the opening of the garment is at the left side of the front breadth, where a flap is added which serves for the button-holes. This pattern, which is published by Harper's Bazar, will prove an admirable one for any clinging cloth garments, or for linens, ginghams, or other wash fabrics which have a heavy body.

To make this skirt for a person of medium size requires 4½ yards of material 44 inches wide.

Frances E. Willard. Five minute speeches by the pastors and others, inspiring music and recitations will make the meeting attractive and instructive. Everyone one most cordially invited to be present.

Happy is the man or woman who can eat a good hearty meal without suffering afterward. If you cannot do it, take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat, and cures all forms of Dyspepsia and Indigestion. People's Drug Co., Main and Milwaukee streets.

WILL MAKE A DARING TRIP

Adolph Frietsch Planning a Trip to the Philippines.

The people of Wisconsin know Adolph Frietsch, the man who built the Schlitz Globe, with the intention of making a trip around the world, and how he made a botch of the boat and failed in his trip and then how he lengthened the schooner and flunked. According to advices from Chicago he has made all the arrangements to start across the Pacific to Manila in a sail boat, having closed a contract with A. R. Bremer, of San Francisco, Cal., by which he agrees to make the trip in sixty-three days of actual sailing, and it is said that he has been offered the necessary financial backing.

Capt. Frietsch will start at once for San Francisco. In speaking of his trip across the salt water pond, he said: "I have agreed to build the sailing boat which I will use within twenty-four days after I arrive at San Francisco," said the captain. "I will do the building myself. I have decided to name the boat the Goke."

"I have agreed to sail to Honolulu in twenty-one days. I will go to Manila within forty-two days after I leave Honolulu. I will probably go from Manila around the Cape of Good Hope. The trip will take 200 days."

WILL BE A NOVEL LECTURE

"A Trip to the Circus" Will Be Heard at Myers Grand

Considerable interest has been aroused in the illustrated lecture at the Myers Grand next Wednesday night. Warren A. Patrick, under whose direction the lecture will be given, is working for the success of the entertainment, and everything indicates a successful engagement. The subject, "A Trip to the Circus," is one in which Janesville by reason of old associations is particularly interested. It is doubtful whether any lecturer, however well versed in the mysteries of the circus world, can tell the average Janesville citizen anything about the white tents with which he is not already familiar, but reminiscences are always delightful, especially when recalled by one capable of clever word painting, and Mr. Coxey, the lecturer, has that reputation. Mr. Coxey has been associated with the big tent shows of the country so long that he speaks from knowledge, and only those who have heard this lecture can realize how interesting and entertaining such a subject can be made. The pictures are very important adjuncts to the lecture. These are not selected at random, but each one illustrates some interesting features in the story of the white tents, beginning with the arrival of the advertising brigade, and ending with the performance. At important points in the lecture, motion pictures are introduced. After the lecture, as a special feature, there will be twenty minutes of the latest moving pictures, on the latest and most interesting subjects. The mechanical part of the entertainment is under the direction of Philo R. Hoy, who is recognized as one of the most expert lantern men in the United States.

HONOR THE MEMORY OF MISS WILLARD

JANESVILLE WORKERS MET YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

Mrs. Knox, Who Was the Great Leader's First Teacher, Read Interesting Reminiscences, While Mrs. Ford, Her Schoolmate and Friend, Also Spoke—Chicago Meeting.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. held a very interesting meeting at the First M. E. church yesterday afternoon and nearly fifty were present. Meeting was opened by reading the 146 Psalm that, being the crusade psalm, used by Mather Thompson in Ohio in that memorable crusade by the women against the saloon. Mrs. Yates, president of the union, led in prayer and presided in her pleasant and able manner. Reminiscences of the early life of Miss F. E. Willard were then read by Mrs. Anna R. Knox, her first teacher, and by Mrs. J. L. Ford, her early schoolmate and life long friend, which were very touching and helpful. A beautiful song, "Crossing the Bar" was sung by Mr. and Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Crawford with Mrs. Clithero at the organ. The song was one of Miss Willard's favorites. Mrs. Van Alkin read a few of the best impressions of Miss Willard's life on Mrs. L. M. U. Stevens, our national president, by her. Also a poem to "F. E. Willard After One Year In Heaven" read by Mrs. L. S. Kearney. Mrs. Palmer read "Chats With Our Workers." The meeting closed by singing the doxology and thus closed a meeting in honor of the temperance leader whose life is going right on inspiring her devoted followers in the cause.

Meeting at Chicago

Several thousand Chicagoans honored the memory of Frances E. Willard yesterday, the first anniversary of her death, by thronging to the Willard memorial reception in the Woman's Temple. From 1 to 5 p. m. hundreds of callers were informally received in rooms 1118 and 1119, under the auspices of the Chicago Young People's Christian Temperance Union, by its officers, Misses Eva M. Shontz, Lucy Page Gaston, Mattie L. Guild, Adah Jenks and Walter J. Miller. The program was impromptu. After a crowded noon meeting in Willard hall the exercises began with the reading of psalms. Miss Shontz read Miss Willard's historic Buffalo address and recited Miss Mary Hill's poem, "Rescue the Temple." Encouraging letters from absent sympathizers were read. Addresses were made by Harmon L. Parmelee and David Muir. Miss Shontz introduced her mother, Mrs. Margaret N. Shontz, to whom she paid a glowing tribute of love.

To Save the Temple

Her mother's name headed the list of the 250 names inscribed yesterday on the great chart of $10 pledges for the $500,000 needed to save the Temple. Pledges has been subscribed to the amount of $8,000.

W. H. Jacobs, who recently offered to name a large park in Madison, Wis., in memory of Miss Willard, provided the people of Evanston would spend $1,000 in beautifying the grounds, yesterday attended the memorial meeting in the women's hall of Northwestern university. He was informed that the subject of the park would not be mentioned, and he left, feeling somewhat nettled on account of the indifference toward his project.

The memorial meeting was not largely attended. It was called to order at 8 o'clock by Mrs. Kidder. Addresses were delivered by Miss Harriet Norris, dean of the Women's college, and by Mrs. Henry Wade Rogers.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF TRADE.

Severe Blizzard Had a Bad Effect on Business.

EXTENT OF DAMAGE UNKNOWN.

Bradstreet's thinks the Reports Have Been Exaggerated—Falling Off of Wheat and Corn Shipments—Failures for the Week Comparatively Few.

New York, Feb. 18.—Bradstreet's says:

"Following the long-continued cold wave, culminating in heavy snow and sleet storms and inclement weather generally throughout nearly all sections of the country, some reports of reviving spring trade and of efforts to ascertain the extent to which material interests have suffered. All things considered, the damage so far indicated, while serious in some sections, has proved less than might have been expected in view of the severity of the visitation. Exception is, of course, made in the case of the winter wheat crop, from which trustworthy reports as to damage are not forthcoming at this early period of the year. From the south come reports of more serious damage, particularly to the growing fruit and vegetable crops. Even there, however, permanent damage, aside from the reported loss of the unpicked cotton, seems to be centered in Georgia, Florida and Louisiana.

"Wheat (including flour) shipments for the week aggregate 2,454,771 bushels, against 5,780,500 bushels last week, 3,882,744 bushels in 1898, 2,120,896 bushels in 1897, 3,149,012 bushels in 1896, and 1,898,973 bushels in 1895. Since July 1 this season the exports of wheat aggregate 159,052,990 bushels, against 157,482,281 last year.

"Corn exports for the week aggregate 1,560,845 bushels, against 3,865,622 bushels last week, 5,056,575 bushels a year ago, 6,441,420 bushels in 1897, 2,925,039 bushels in 1896, and 592,967 bushels in 1895. Since July 1 this season corn exports aggregate 104,840,121 bushels, against 110,562,246 bushels during the same period a year ago.

"Failures for the week have been 173 in the United States, against 295 last year, and eighteen in Canada, against thirty-five last year."

THE PRESIDENT AT BOSTON.

Addresses Grand Army Veterans, State Legislators and Business Men.

Boston, Feb. 18.—President McKinley spoke to Grand Army veterans, state legislators and business men before returning to Washington Friday. With the veterans he left the well-received suggestion that men who served in the Spanish war be admitted to membership in the G. A. R. To the lawmakers of the state, which he called the "home and fountain of liberty," he spoke briefly on the Philippines, significantly saying that "desertion of duty is not an American habit." His theme with business men was the assurance of a "sound national currency system," with "every branch of the national government united for the inviolability of our national obligations and credit."

Debate on Child Education.

Washington, Feb. 18.—In the second day's session of the mothers' congress Friday Miss Lucy Wheelock of Boston delivered an address on "Froebel's Text-Book for Mothers." This paper was discussed by Miss Williams of Philadelphia, who said that uniformity in life contributed to the comfort of infants and had an influence in after years. The treasurer, Mrs. Masters of Illinois, spoke of the need of money for carrying on the work of the congress. Mrs. Devereaux Blake said there were many difficulties, which should be removed, in the way of women who desire to vote for school officers. Mrs. Westcott took the position that parents should only see that the child followed the instruction of teachers, while Mrs. Mumford and Mrs. Birney believed that mothers should take a greater interest in their studies.

May Be the Pavana.

Halifax, Feb. 18.—The Hamburg-American line steamship Alesia, from Hamburg for Boston, put in here and reported passing a large first-class passenger steamer, disabled, about 200 miles from this port. The Alesia could not go to the vessel's assistance because of a shortage of coal. The disabled steamer had a red funnel and may be the overdue Pavana.

Will Liberate Prisoners.

Madrid, Feb. 18.—It has been decided at a cabinet council to liberate the Filipinos who had been deported to the Caroline and Ladrones islands, in order to influence the Filipinos to release the Spaniards they hold prisoners. It has also been decided to postpone the sale of the floating dock at Havana, the offers received not being acceptable.

Chicago Stock Market.

Chicago, Feb. 17.—Trade was even more sluggish than usual on Friday, to-day, and all change in values was toward a lower level, though the decline was not wide in any case. Demand for cattle was feeble, with some sales of butchers' stock 10c off, late sales of hogs were 2 1/2@5c off from morning prices, or best prices the day before, and the sheep trade was sluggish, with bidding generally 10c lower. Receipts were estimated at 2,500 cattle, 28,000 hogs and 7,000 sheep, making 45,958 cattle, 133,284 hogs and 70,785 sheep for the week thus far, against 38,207 cattle, 130,811 hogs and 83,053 sheep for the same time last week, and 57,077 cattle, 160,390 hogs and 69,429 sheep for same period last year. Values for good fat cattle range 25@40c higher than one year ago to-day, while hogs are selling a big 30c lower, sheep about 10c and lambs 40c 60c lower than at this time last year.

THREE FIREMEN KILLED.

Caught Under Falling Iron and Stone at Philadelphia Blast.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 18.—About 3 o'clock Friday morning, while about a dozen firemen were at work in the ruins of the store of the Emerson Shoe company, which was burned out last night, a mass of iron and stone crashed down from the upper floors, burying the men beneath it. Three of the firemen were killed. They were: WILLIAM CHANCE, a horseman. HUGH DUFFY. GEORGE W. STINLE.

When the three men were first buried under the debris they answered the shouts of their comrades, but the answering cries soon ceased and the unfortunates undoubtedly met death by suffocation. Five of the firemen were injured, two seriously, by the falling debris.

No Favors for Government.

Washington, Feb. 18.—The merchants of Havana have made complaint of late that the market was being demoralized by purchases by the military authorities, certain merchants giving rebates in hope that they would get back the amount of duty on the goods sold the government. Secretary McMelejohn took steps to put an end to this discrimination and directed that hereafter whenever it became necessary for the commissary department to purchase supplies in Cuba, to augment the supplies sent from this country, the market price shall be paid, without deduction of duties. This places the government on the same basis as private buyers and prevents any entanglement over duties.

Tacoma, Wash., Feb. 18.—James Ward of the shipping firm of Saunders & Ward has returned from a visit to England and announces the establishment by himself and others of a steamer line between this point and the Hawaiian islands. ## REPULSED THE INSURGENTS.

Men of First Nebraska Regiment Prove Their Metal.

ATTEMPTED AMBUSH FAILS.

Our Troops Drive Off the Attacking Party, Killing Eight of Them, Including an Officer, and Capturing Two Others—To Extend Jurisdiction.

Manila, Feb. 18.—The guard of the First Nebraska regiment, stationed near the waterworks, was attacked yesterday afternoon by insurgents, who were dressed in citizens' clothes and in hiding in a bamboo thicket. The Americans were prepared, and Col. Stotzenburg immediately sent four companies of reinforcements to the scene of the attack. The natives stood their ground for a short time and then fled. Our troops drove them toward Calocan, killing eight of them, including an officer, and capturing two others.

Capt. A. H. Hollingsworth, Lieut. Bert D. Wheedon and six privates were wounded.

The arrest of natives in the city on suspicion of aiding or attempting to aid the rebels and the seizure of concealed knives and rifles carried by natives continue.

Gen. Otis has received word of some contemplated action on the part of merchants whose goods were damaged during the battles here and at Iloilo. It is said they complain of interference with their business, and they propose to seek relief. Gen. Otis has not been officially notified of any claim for damages.

There is practically nothing new in the situation here. The troops are in good shape physically and continue cheerful after the castigations administered to the insurgents in the last few weeks.

CHANCE FOR DEWEY.

American Authority to Be Extended Over All the Philippines.

Washington, Feb. 17.—The administration has determined rapidly to extend the jurisdiction of the United States over the whole of the Philippine group, acting on the theory that delay in this case is dangerous and that anarchy and a general paralysis of such interests as the islands support will be brought about through a failure promptly to replace the Spanish sovereignty over the islands by that of the United States. This decision involves the necessity of a naval campaign, and this will be instituted as soon as Admiral Dewey receives the reinforcements, in the shape of gunboats, now on the way to Manila.

LESSON TO YOUNG MEN.

There is a lesson for young men in the life of M. Felix Faure, the president of the French republic, whose sudden death was recently chronicled.

M. Faure was born in Paris Jan. 30, 1841, and was of the plain people. His father was a journeyman upholsterer, of whom little is known. But his mother was a woman of rare judgment and force of character, and was in many ways the author of her distinguished son's career in life. At the age of 20 young Faure was apprenticed to a tanner in Ambroise and learned the trade. Later he started in a small way in the hide and wool business. He made a success of this venture, but in 1870, when he had become submayor of Havre, the Franco-Prussian war broke out, and abandoning his bright business and political prospects, he threw himself into the contest with as much ardor as if he had been a professional soldier winning distinction for bravery. In 1881 he was elected to parliament, and in the same year became a member of the Gambetta cabinet. Since then he had steadily advanced until he became president.

Nature endowed Faure with a strong will, and excellent talents, but his own industry was more largely responsible for his advancement than any other agency.

THE NATION'S TRUST.

In his speech before the Home Market club at Boston, President McKinley said:

"The Philippines, like Cuba and Porto Rico, were intrusted to our hands by the war, and to that great trust, under the providence of God and in the name of human progress and civilization, we are committed. It is a trust we have not sought, it is a trust from which we will not flinch. The American people will not hold up the hands of their servants at home to whom they commit its execution, while Dewey and Otis and the brave men whom they command will have the support of the country in upholding our flag where it now floats, the symbol and assurance of liberty and justice."

The president's words have the right ring to them. As he says, the trust is the trust of the people, and all are willing to do their share in discharging the obligations that fate has placed upon the nation.

Our attention has been called to the fact that a few days ago The Recorder published something or other in which it claimed that it was thereby "calling The Gazette down." While we do not recall the article in question, we fully appreciate the delicate compliment paid us. As The Recorder proposed to call us "down," and as we have not moved—that is, not since we got settled after the recent fire—we feel quite confident that we are still up on the high plane from which The Recorder, from its meek and lowly position as the official organ of the O. of D. and G., proposed to call us.

But let it not be construed to mean that the newspaper backing that Mayor and Common Council McLean so absolutely controls has had anything to do with the fact that he has become the mayor and common council. Nor should you get the idea that the fact that Mayor and Common Council McLean is Mayor and Common Council McLean at all to the discredit of Mayor and Common Council McLean, for it is not. The fact that M. & C. C. McLean is M. & C. C. McLean is much more to the credit of M. & C. C. McLean than it is to the—but let this, too, pass.

William Johnson, of Brandenburg, Ky., claims to own the longest shotgun in the country. He made the weapon himself for the purpose of killing ducks, but found when it was finished that at ordinary range it would blow a duck to atoms. The barrels are 6 feet long and measure 4 inches in diameter outside and 1½ inches inside. The weapon weighs 132 pounds and carries 1,500 yards.

It goes without saying, of course, that a man who can be mayor and common council all at once must be a gentleman of rare discernment, with excellent command of the "glad hand," and strong personality—a natural born leader, in fact, whose impress is felt by all who come in contact with him. Otherwise people would not be burdened with steam rollers.

As the steam roller cannot be used at all except in violation of the provisions of the charter, how would it do to trade it for a chemical engine? However, the idea is impractical and may as well be dismissed first as last—Mayor and Common Council McLean likes the roller, and that settles it.

For many years a pass to the opera house was all the profit there was in the job of being an alderman. Now that the pass must pass, there is no profit in the job whatever. But there is nothing to indicate that the future aldermen will not get as much cussing—no matter what they do—as has been the rule in the past.

In calling the public attention to the evils of the pass system the license committee has rendered the people an important service by showing that the fundamental principle of the anti-pass sentiment is well founded—passes for officials mean less revenue for the city.

And merely to head off the other fellow we might remark that the fact that The Gazette recently burned out, in no way confirms the old saying that "the singed cat fears the fire."

The cost of administering the Cuban government under United States military control will not be more than one-quarter of that under the Spanish management.

Perhaps The Recorder will admit that a chemical engine might come in handy as a trailer for the steam roller in the annual Fourth of July parade.

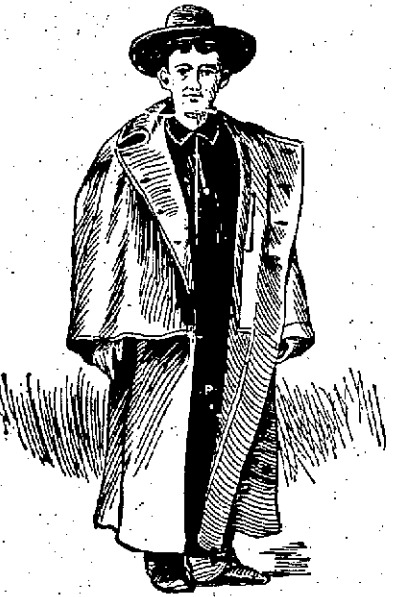

And according to the senate anti-pass bill, Manager Myers would also be liable to a fine of from $200 to $500 for offering a pass to an alderman.

However, there is no law to prevent the members of the common council from passing the stores on the street.

Pass? Pass!

NEWSBOY WHO WENT TO WAR.

ganized in 1895, and doing much good work on rather novel lines—the outcome of one of Judge Thompson's ideas. In this home and club house Pat became one of the best players in the Newsboys' band, and when every other heart leaped at the hope of serving his country, this patriotic little band had not long to wait in suspense. It required a special permit from Washington, because the boys were under age, to allow them to go with the Louisville Legion when it went to the front as the First Kentucky. This Newsboys' band had great success in Porto Rico. They gave two concerts a week to the citizens of Ponce.

But it wasn't all "making music" and receiving applause. Along in October poor Pat fell a victim to the fever, owing to the constant rains and tent life, and might never have reached his friends in Louisville had it not been for his speedy removal to Philadelphia and the splendid care given him at St. Agnes hospital.

The women interested in the hospital made a lion of Pat and when he went back to Louisville he found a host of newsboys marshaled at the station to cheer him.

Germans Denounce Chambers.

Berlin, Feb. 18.—The German newspapers in their discussion of the Samoan question are taking strong exception to the spirit and statements of the letter of Chief Justice Chambers of the supreme court of Samoa to his brother in New York, extracts from which have been cabled here.

czar and czarina bears the inscription "Our Friend and Ally."

Five thousand photographs of the Duke of Orleans have been seized on the frontier.

Prince Victor Napoleon has been sending hundreds of telegrams from Brussels, and the activity of the Bonapartists there indicates that a manifesto is forthcoming. All, however, is quiet in Paris and in the provinces, and there is believed to be little danger of a coup d'état.

President McKinley's Message.

Washington, Feb. 18.—The following was cabled at midnight Thursday night:

Department of State, Washington, Feb. 18. To Porter, Ambassador, Paris:—The President of the United States desires you to convey to the family of the late president of the French republic the expression of his heartfelt sympathy in their irreparable bereavement. The whole world mourns the loss of one of its greatest statesmen, and this country has an especial share in the sorrow of her sister republic.

"JOHN HAY, Secretary."

The secretary of state also indited a personal letter to M. Thiebaut, charge of the French embassy here, expressive of his sentiments on the occasion.

Condolence of Parliament.

London, Feb. 18.—In the house of commons the government leader, A. J. Balfour, expressed deep sympathy with France at the death of President Faure. The liberal leader in the house, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, concurred, on behalf of the opposition, in Mr. Balfour's remarks.

No Right to Be Murdered.

Lord Monck, at one time governor of Canada, sat in the house of commons for an English constituency. An Irishman himself, he was very patronizing to the Irish members. Meeting Vincent Scully, the member for Tipperary, in the lobby one night, he elbowed him on the shoulder and said, familiarly: "Well, Scully, how are you?" The other, annoyed by this form of address, rejoined: "I will thank you, my lord, not to deprive my name of the last letter. Or, if you do, pray add it to your own, and call yourself 'Monkey.'" Vincent Scully once gave utterance in the house to a ludicrous confusion of thought. A landlord had been murdered in Tipperary, and during a discussion in regard to the crime, an attempt was made to prove that it was agrarian. Mr. Scully spoke of the murdered man in terms of the highest praise. "He was much beloved," said he; "he distributed food to the starving people and no man had a less right to be murdered!"—Argonaut.

NO UNION LABELS AT SOULMAN'S SHOP

PROPRIETOR AND WORKMEN HAVE DIAGREEMENT.

Organization "Black Union" Him For Patronizing a Non Union Barber Shop, and He at Once Issued a "Declaration of Independence," and Burned the Signs Up in the Store.

Because he patronized a non-union barber shop, John Soulman, the cigar manufacturer, was placed on the "union blacklist." One of his union men informed him that such was the case, and the discussion ended by Soulman's discharging all his men, burning up the union signs, and declaring that in the future no union man need to apply to him for employment.

A meeting of the union was then called, and an assessment levied against Mr. Soulman for $25 for the destruction of the signs. This he refused to pay.

"At a meeting of a union" said Mr. Soulman, "held on Wednesday evening, my name was placed on the blacklist as being a patron of a non-union barber shop—Arnold Tiff's—but I did not know of it until Thursday noon, when Fred Burdick, who was in my employ notified me that such action had been taken, and said that he and the other workmen in my factory thought that I was in the wrong in so doing. I informed them that it was none of their business, where I traded. One word led to another and as I propose to run my own business, I discharged all my men and they left yesterday at noon. I told them that my shop should no longer shelter the union labor sign, and took the signs from the wall and put them in the stove. Last evening, I understand, the union fined me $25 for so doing. I have always paid my men the union wages. They always received their money on Saturday and they cannot say that I ever dictated to them where they should spend their money when doing their trading—although they sought to dictate to me.

"I intend to employ men at the regular union labor scale of wages, but I will have no union labels on the walls of my factory. Men that I employ cannot dictate to me where I shall trade when I do not dictate to them. Fair play is all I ask of them. My business will go on just the same."

George N. Hubbard of the local cigar makers' union when seen this morning said: "What displeases the union is that Soulman should take the union signs from his factory and destroy them in the fire. At a meeting last evening he was fined, and it will not cost him less than $50 to have his factory reinstated. The men that he discharged are now being looked after by the local union as the union now has a snug little sum in 'the bank.'"

CONSIDERABLE LEAF FROZEN

Moderate Weather Is Now Wanted By Tobacco Men

Up to Tuesday of this week the buyers and the tobacco have been frozen up as it were, making matters rather quiet in this line. Tuesday the weather began to moderate, says the Farm and Home, and things are thawing out enough to allow buyers to begin riding and buying again. There is some complaint that the tobacco is yet frozen considerable and in an unfit condition to handle much.

Just as soon as the condition of the tobacco will permit of handling buying will begin again with about its old time activity and with prices fully as high as before the freeze. Every few days buyers are coming into the state, adding fresh life to the contestants.

There is yet considerable tobacco lying in the hands of the farmers, but it certainly looks as though it would be picked up before the packing season closes.

MYERS GOING TO NEW YORK

Will Take an Eastern Trip to Look Up Bookings

Peter L. Myers, manager of the Myers Grand opera house, will leave in June for New York for the purpose of booking attractions for the season of 1899 and 1900. Manager Myers says that he intends to secure, if possible, the very best of attractions, but that in order to do so he must first have the assurance that the theater going public will guarantee to patronize the house in case these companies are brought here. To ascertain the sentiment will require a canvass of the town. Manager Myers will only ask cooperation on high class attractions such as are seldom seen in Janesville and which play at the best of New York and Chicago play houses.

FUNERAL OF JOHN GIBBONS

Was Held This Morning From St. Patrick's Church.

From St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock this morning, services were held over the remains of the late John Gibbons. The sacred edifice was well filled with loving friends, and the floral offerings were many.

The remains were tenderly laid to rest in Mount Olivet cemetery.

DIRECTORS ASK FOR WAREHOUSE PLANS

JANESVILLE MACHINE COMPANY WILL BUILD.

Structure To Front on Pleasant Street Running West From River Street—Figure on Spending Fifteen Thousand Dollars—Increasing Business Calls For Three-Story Building.

Directors of the Janesville Machine company have asked for plans for the erection of one of the most complete warehouses in the state of Wisconsin. The new structure will in all probability be built this spring. The intention is to have front on Pleasant street running from River street west to the one story brick building that now stands at the corner of Pleasant and River streets.

This proposed storage building will cost in the neighborhood of $15,000.

The intention now is to have a building 150 feet long by 100 feet wide, three stories high, with a basement. The interior will be arranged to be as near fire proof as it is possible to make such a building. The elevator service will also be complete.

Increasing business demands the erection of this building as every department is being taxed to its utmost and with a full force working every workday in the week the company find it hard to keep abreast of the orders coming in from all parts of the country.

Since the company commenced the manufacture of plows it has worked up a business in this line that would credit to any of the large exclusive plow manufacturing firms that have been in the business for many years.

"It has been the custom to slack work at the factory when November came around," said one of the directors today, "but this year it has been one continual rush from week to week. The future has in store very bright prospects. For some time past we have contemplated the erection of a new building."

THE SCHOLARS HOLD A DEBATE

Profitable and Enjoyable Session at the High School Building

At the high school building last evening members of the Delta Sigma and Rusk Lyceum held a debate. The subject handled was: "Resolved, that boys have a harder time than girls." For the affirmative Miss Marie Hamilton and Fred Holt appeared while the negative was ably handled by Miss Nellie Hayes and Percy Kearney.

The judges awarded the honors to the affirmative.

A banquet was then served. Prof. J. Dixon acted as toastmaster and during the evening the following toasts were given:

Nellie Rumrill—Rusk Lyceum.

Ray Owen—Delta Sigma.

Mary C. Holt—Our Visitors.

Dollie Bright—Our Faculty.

Prof. D. D. Mayne—Our High School.

The Wisconsin company has been forced to make the cut to compete with the Rock County Telephone Co. A canvass of the city will at once be made.

BEYOND THE CARES OF EARTH

Mrs. William Winbigger

The death of Mrs. William Winbigger, which occurred at her home on North Franklin street at 5:20 o'clock this morning, was an event of unusual sadness. Married last June, and with a life of happiness before her, she was stricken by the relentless destroyer in the fullness of her youth and after two weeks of painful illness. Mrs. Winbigger's sickness began with an attack of the grip, and soon developed into an affection of the brain. For some time she was afflicted with the mental trouble, but when reason returned to her a few days ago, her husband and relatives were happy in the belief that her recovery would be rapid. Without warning, however, the disease took a new turn, and death closed the scene.

Mrs. Winbigger will be remembered as Miss Lucy Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Larson. She was twenty six years of age, and an exceptionally bright and estimable young woman and her death will be the cause of much genuine sorrow.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been made owing to the fact that relatives have not yet arrived from the east.

B. D. Rockwood.

Baldwin D. Rockwood died this morning at 11:45 o'clock at the Palmer Memorial hospital. The cause of his demise was pneumonia. He had been ill since a week ago last Tuesday. He was a member of the Grand Army, having served three years in the civil war as a member of the Thirtieth Wisconsin regiment, enlisting at Albany. Since the war Mr. Rockwood has made his home in Janesville, and of late has been in the employ of Soverhill & Porter, at their leaf tobacco warehouse.

Four brothers and three sisters are left to mourn his loss.

Funeral services will be held from the Frank Kimball undertaking rooms Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in charge of the Grand Army. Interment is to be in Oak Hill cemetery.

John Barry.

John Barry remains arrived this morning at 6:30 o'clock, from Wayzata, Minn., and were taken to the home of Frank Thompson, on Gold street. The funeral will be held from St. Patrick's church Sunday at 2:30 p. m., and the interment will be in Mount Olivet cemetery.

Miss Lillian Barry, a daughter of deceased, and B. McSweeney accompanied the remains from Wayzata.

STATE OFFICERS RELEASE VANNICE

SOLDIER IS SET FREE BY THE AUTHORITIES.

Says That He Intends To Start Up in Business Here, and Will Leave Liquor Alone—Was in Madison Jail For Several Weeks, But Prosecution Was Dropped.

A. M. Vannice, the soldier boy who was arrested in this city several weeks ago for impersonating a United States revenue officer at Edgerton, was released from the Madison jail last evening and this morning arrived in Janesville. The United States officers who caused his arrest say that Vannice has already been sufficient punished and that they are willing to let the case drop providing that he behaves himself in the future.

Local friends were at the depot to meet Vannice this morning and as he stepped from the train he was given a cordial reception. He at once went to his boarding house and says he will locate in Janesville and show the people that he intends to make amends.

The charge on which Vannice was arrested was that of impersonating a United States revenue officer at Edgerton, it being alleged that he walked into the bank there and demanded a cash donation, saying that the bank had no revenue license sign displayed. Officers at Madison then ordered his arrest.

At the time of his trouble Vannice was in the employ of a local piano firm, and while on a business trip to Edgerton got intoxicated. When given a hearing here before Justice Patton he was committed to jail for trial. Before coming to Janesville he was a member of an Illinois regiment, having enlisted at Woodstock, Ill., afterwards serving his country in Porto Rico.

Always a welcome waiting for me, In your eyes a love light that I might see, I would just make an idol, dear, of thee, Our heaven would be here on earth.

SOMETHING NEW

SAW THE BIG BATTLE.

ENGLISH WOMAN WHO HAS LIVED A CENTURY.

A Waterloo Dancer Still Alive—Lady Carew, a Belle of the Brussels Ball, Celebrates Her One Hundredth Birthday.

There was a sound of revelry by night, And Belgium's capital had flattered then Her beauty and her chivalry, and bright The lamps shone o'er fair women and brave men.

The English newspapers from time to time announce the death of the survivors of the famous ball given in Brussels on the eve of the battle of Waterloo by the Duchess of Richmond, which was made famous by Lord Byron's reference to it in the third canto of "Childe Harold."

It is said there are but two survivors of this festive occasion, and one is the Dowager Lady Carew, who has just completed her one hundredth year.

At the time of the ball she was Miss Cliffe, daughter of Maj. Anthony Cliffe, but in the next year she became the wife of Lord Carew, who died many years ago. The old lady is delightfully pictured as hale and hearty, though in an invalid's chair.

It is somewhat remarkable that the exact spot where this famous ball took place should be in dispute.

Byron's glowing lines give the im-

THE DOWAGER LADY CAREW. pression that it was a magnificent affair, perhaps in a palace, but as a matter of fact it was an impromptu gathering in a large room hurriedly improvised for the occasion.

No doubt the "fair women" and "brave men" chased "the glowing hours with flying feet" with as much pleasure as in marble halls, and it is quite certain that, though the exact location of their revelry may have been forgotten, the occasion itself will be preserved to all time by Byron's lines.

A stanza, not as often quoted as that with which the poet opens the brilliant scene, and which is not less beautiful, describing the battle-field, the carnage and the dead, is as follows:

Last noon beheld them full of lusty life, Last eve in beauty's circle proudly gay; The midnight brought the signal-sound of strife.

The morn the marshaling in arms—the day

Battle's magnificently stern array! The thunder clouds close o'er it, which when rent

The earth is covered thick with other clay,

Which her own clay shall cover heaped and pent

Rider and horse—friend, foe—in one red burial blent.

PAYMENT OF VOLUNTEERS.

House Committee Recommends Adoption of Joint Resolution.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 18.—Scarcely a score of members appeared in the house Friday morning and the business was confined to the presentation of committee reports.

Mr. Rankin, from the committee on military affairs, made a report recommending the adoption of a resolution introduced some time ago favoring the payment of the Illinois volunteers from the time of assembling at their home station to the time of their muster in the United States service. The report of the committee was adopted.

Mr. Searcy, from the committee on mines and mining, reported Brown's bill for the protection of lives of miners from the dangers resulting from the incompetency of miners. The bill was read a first time and advanced to a second reading.

The house adjourned to 5 o'clock Monday. Senator Hussman was the only member present when that body met, and adjournment was taken until 5 o'clock Monday.

City of Chicago Concerned in a Supreme Court Ruling.

Chicago, Feb. 18.—Damage suits aggregating from $3,000,000 to $5,000,000 will probably be brought against the city on riot claims as the result of a decision handed down by the Supreme court Friday. Nearly every railroad company centering in Chicago holds heavy claims against the municipality growing out of the railroad riots of 1894. All litigation has been held in abeyance, however, pending the ruling of the Supreme court in the case of the Manhattan Cement company. This has been regarded as the test case.

By affirming a judgment given against the city in the Manhattan case the Supreme court deals a violent blow at the city of Chicago. The complainants asked $150 damages for property burned in a car at the stock yards during the railroad riots. Judgment was obtained against the city in the Circuit court and the city appealed.

The legal question involved in the Manhattan Cement company case was the constitutionality of the law which provides that cities and counties are liable for three-fourths of the value of property destroyed as the direct result of riots.

By the ruling of the Supreme court the Manhattan company will recover three-fourths of the value of its cement destroyed by fire during the riot. The decision, in effect, establishes the constitutionality of the statute under which the claim against the city was brought.

Postage Relief for Soldiers.

Washington, Feb. 18.—The postmaster-general has modified the order requiring the certification of officers of the army, navy and marine corps, to secure domestic postage rates to letters sent by men in American forces outside the country. The modification permits postmasters at the places from which mail is sent to exercise a discretionary power for the first time, in identifying the sending party as entitled to domestic rates for transmission here.

The message also intimated that he would act likewise on any similar bill of the kind that might be passed by the legislature.

TO DISCOURAGE DIVORCES.

Indiana House Passes Bill Forbidding Remarrying Within Two Years.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 18.—The elections committee in the senate, composed of six republicans and three democrats, reported in favor of retaining Frank W. Cregor as the senator from Hancock, Rush and Madison counties. The seat was contested by Elmer E. Stoner, republican.

In the house the bill originating in that body providing that a divorced person shall not remarry within two years passed.

The house also passed the bill originating in that body abolishing the state board of sanitary commissioners and creating the office of state veterinary surgeon.

A bill providing for the introduction of the Torrens land system was advanced to engrossment in the house, after being so amended as to authorize the people of any county to vote on the proposition to take advantage of the system.

The pharmacy bill was advanced to third reading in the senate, after having been so amended as to permit druggists who do not hold licenses to sell patent and proprietary medicines.

Retards Work on Warships.

Washington, Feb. 18.—Naval officials are lamenting the loss of the big machine shop at the Brooklyn navy yard as likely to retard important work either already started or about to begin. Congress will be appealed to immediately to provide an emergency appropriation to meet the demand at the earliest possible moment. Engineer-in-Chief Melville believes that $500,000 will be required to provide a new plant. The navy department may be obliged to use some of the big ship-building and engine works in New York and vicinity for help until the machinery plant can be replaced. It is even possible that some vessels may be sent to other navy yards for repairs, and in this case Boston will probably be the lucky place.

No Drink Without License.

Lansing, Mich., Feb. 18.—A bill introduced in the house provides for the licensing of all persons who desire to use intoxicating liquors as a beverage. The annual fee is fixed at $5 and the bill provides for the publication of the name and address of each person licensed and the number of his license. A severe penalty is provided for the selling to any person who does not produce his license or for loaning, giving or selling a license to another person.

May Condemn Private Lands.

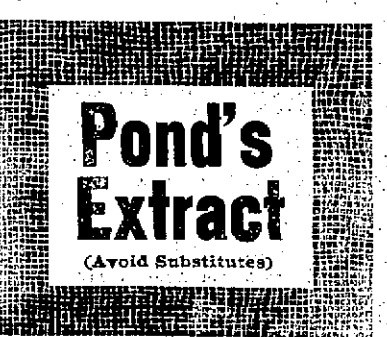

Aurora, Ill., Feb. 18.—The decision of the supreme court at Springfield in the case of the Aurora and Geneva Railway company vs. Harvey, that a street railway may condemn private property for right of way, is far-reaching in its effect. The court practically decides that a road may condemn private property for its own use.

Failure at New York.

New York, Feb. 18.—The failure of A. J. Eno & Co., members of the Consolidated Exchange, is announced. The firm was composed of Alfred J. Eno, Thomas B. Penton, Jr., and Louis F. Werner. #### A WILD MAN'S STORY.

LIVED NEARLY TWENTY YEARS IN A CAVE.

Because of a Jilt—Details of an Indiana Affair Outlined in a News Item Last Week—The Blade Special Gives True Facts.

Frank Holbrook, a resident of Lapel, Ind., recently went hunting about two miles east of town on the Vieson tract, which contains some 5000 or 6000 acres of dense timber and is the refuge of small game and birds. It was in these woods that Holbrook was spending the day hunting, when he was suddenly taken aback at seeing a beastly looking man, so called because he was covered all over with hair. His beard and head locks were extremely long and waved, or rather rose and fell, as the man stooped and ran under the underbrush. This man seemed to have arisen from out of the ground, hence Holbrook was curious to see where he was hiding and why he had not seen him before. He looked around and soon discovered a door, or rather a passage way, leading under a large oak tree, and being venturesome was determined to see where the passage led to. Cautiously he let himself inside, and, to his astonishment, found three cosy rooms which had been dug in the ground and rudely furnished with three beds, or ticks, made out of opossum, ground-hog and squirrel hides, and stuffed with birds' feathers. While Holbrook was studying the wild man's home he was suddenly brought to a seconds and then extended his hairy hand and said:

"Let us be friends, for I have not spoken to a man for about twenty-six years."

Holbrook grasped his hand, but was dumfounded and afraid to speak, but the old man, evidently understanding the cause of his muteness, asked him to take a seat. This seat was made out of four forks driven into the ground, with two cross poles laid on them and a piece of hickory bark laid on the cross poles.

Holbrook had by this time got control of his vocal organs, and asked the exile his name. He answered in good English, "George Spitzmetzer." He then asked him the cause of his living the life of a recluse. He said:

"Many years ago when a young man I had a sweetheart. A beautiful girl she was, and I loved her with all my heart, but she proved untrue, not from her own will, but because coaxed and cajoled by her parents, who preferred a wealthy young man who was seeking her hand. After many days of wavering she finally concluded she had best accept the rich one, and she did. I swore I would never look upon her face again and I never have, though I have often longed to be back once more in the world. Fearing that I would meet her has kept me here in this strange abode."

The man told who she married and many other interesting things about their courtship, but requested that her name be held as a secret. Mr. Holbrook went direct to Lapel and reported his find and quite a number went with him to see if he was telling the truth and found everything as stated.

Now being personally acquainted with the woman in the case I was determined that he should see her. So, with others, bought the hermit a suit of clothes and gave them to him, and as the woman's husband had been dead for nearly five years we deemed it all right to get her to go with us to the cave, which she readily agreed.

There were six in the party that visited the cave-dweller Monday, including the woman. It was only with much persuasion that the woman was induced to enter the underground retreat. The hermit recognized her at once, but, of course, she could not believe the hideous looking object before her was her lover of old. The man's clear and well-spoken story convinced her, however, and while it was being related both frequently wept, and now that the man has shaved, had his hair cut and been cleaned up generally he is not bad looking by any means, and his friends are telling him it is "never too late to mend." feeling of danger, and he acknowledges that he was a little shaky when the form of this burly man darkened the hole which he had entered just a few minutes before. Nevertheless, Holbrook nerved himself as best he could for the struggle which he felt was imminent. He could not hide, for the man was before him. However, the wild man did not prove as murderous as Holbrook imagined. The strange being stared him in the face for a few
